

Date: 08/06/2016

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST FOI/012804 – Junior doctors

1) Is the trust on course to implement the new contract in August 2016? - The Trust was on target to implement according to the national timelines for implementation

2) What steps the trust has taken to discuss with junior doctors working within it or under lead employer arrangements about the implementation of the contract and the perspective of trainees? - The Trust has approached the BMA Junior Doctors representative and intended to discuss draft rotas with junior doctors once agreement had been reached with the Service Leads

3) Has the trust advertised / is planning to advertise for the new guardian role(s)? If so please supply further information about the job specification, essential requirements and person specification. - The Trust has advertised the Guardian of Safe Working post and is due to interview on the 9 June 2016. See attached job description and person specification

In addition I would be grateful if you could provide any materials pertaining to the implementation of the new contract within your trust. This should include but not be limited to

4) New rota designs (with comparisons from before). If rotas have not yet been designed, the date by which they will be available. - Redesigned rotas have not been finalised as approvals to the changes have not been received from Service Leads.

5) Any modelling relating to the effects for the trust (including cost impact, levels of staffing across the week, impact upon training) - A report was submitted to the Directors detailing the impact of the draft modelling as at the 4 May 2016 (see attached)

6) Details of any plans to change services offered in order to implement 7 day services as a result of this contract change. - Scoping to be undertaken

7) Any correspondence from or to NHS employers, Health Education England or the local deanery regarding contract implementation NHS Employers information (see attached)