

Date: 21/12/2017

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST FOI/013805 - Upper and lower urinary tract infections

Request 1

The number of patients aged between 16 and 65 presenting at A and E with upper and lower urinary tract infections also referred to as bladder and kidney infections between Jan 2012 to Dec 2016. These are also known as pyelonephritis or cystitis.

Cannot answer this as this is not coded in A&E

Request 2

The number of patients aged between 16 and 65 admitted into hospital with upper and lower urinary tract infections (bladder and kidney infections) including via A&E between Jan 2012 and Dec 2016. These infections are also known as pyelonephritis (Kidney Infection) or cystitis (Urinary Tract Infection). Admittance can be as a result of a primary diagnosis or secondary.

2725 Admissions, 2286 Patients

Request 3

The number of patients aged between 16 and 65 diagnosed with urinary sepsis between Jan 2012 and Dec 2016.

339 Admissions, 325 Patients

Request 4

The number of patients aged 65 and over presenting at A and E with upper and lower urinary tract infections also referred to as bladder and kidney infections between Jan 2012 to Dec 2016. These are also known as pyelonephritis or cystitis.

Cannot answer this as this isn't coded in A&E

Request 5

The number of patients aged 65 and over admitted into hospital with upper and lower urinary tract infections (bladder and kidney infections) including via A&E between Jan 2012 and Dec 2016. These infections are also known as pyelonephritis (Kidney Infection) or cystitis (Urinary Tract Infection). Admittance can be as a result of a primary diagnosis or secondary.

11945 Admissions, 8214 Patients

Request 6

The number of patients aged 65 and over diagnosed with urinary sepsis between Jan 2012 and Dec 2016.

1117 Admissions, 1084 Patients