

Date: 01/06/2018

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST FOI/014152 – Continence pads

I would like to apply for some information under the Freedom of Information Act for The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust and associated Home Delivery Service of Incontinence Pads, and would be grateful if you could answer the questions below:

Who is the current Logistics provider? -
NHS Supply Chain

Who is the current provider of the home delivery service for the supply of disposable continence care products?
Whiteley Home Service Ltd

What is the duration of the contract? Start and end date? Do you have an option to extend? If yes, how long for?
2 Years (01.04.2016 to 31.03.18), Can be extend, for an on-going period while a new tender is completed

Is the contract part of a framework agreement? If yes, which one?
2010/s 84-126626

What was the cost of product for the last 12 Month period?
Commercially sensitive

What was the cost of delivery for the last 12 Month period?
Commercially sensitive

How many community service users are in receipt of disposable continence care products? Adults and Children?
Approx. 5000

How many care homes does the Trust provide into? Residential/Nursing or both?
77 residential and 19 nursing

How many Nursing service users are in receipt of disposable continence care products?
Approx. 400

How many Residential service users are in receipt of disposable continence care products?
Approx. 780

Who is the person(s) responsible for the service? - Gill Davey