

For the Record – Press Statements

Publication	Stourbridge News
Date of article	Thursday 27 th September 2012
Reporter	Bev Holder
Headline	No-one should have to go through what we did
First paragraph/s of article	An elderly Stourbridge widow is calling for a thorough investigation following the death of her husband after the boss of the borough's main hospital admitted the nurse caring for him "did not have the experience" to handle the situation
Paragraph/s relating to The Dudley Group	N/A
Press enquiry	The Stourbridge News have copies of letters from a patient's wife who is not happy with the care her husband received after he died at Russells Hall Hospital. Question: 1. Can we comment?
Also issued to:	NA
Trust response
We would like to offer our most sincere condolences to Mrs Saunders on the sad loss of her husband Fred. Our complaints department is looking into concerns Mrs Saunders has raised about the care her husband received after his death. Unfortunately, due to patient confidentiality, we are unable to comment further.	