

Date: 30/12/15

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION REQUEST 012555 – Vacancies

	All Nurses	Emergency nurse practitioners	Registered nurses in EDs
1A) As of the 1st of December 2015, how many nursing vacancies did you have (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) for the following groups ..	As of November 2015 • 83.13 ward based qualified nurse vacancies. We have not broken these down any further.
1B) As of the 1st of December 2014, how many nursing vacancies (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) did you have for the following groups ..	Not able to provide, information not stored centrally
1C) As of the 1st of December 2013, how many nursing vacancies (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) did you have for the following groups ..	Not able to provide, information not stored centrally
1D) As of the 1st of December 2015, how many nursing posts (the equivalent of permanent full time posts/WTE budgeted establishment) did you have for the following groups ..	As of November 2015 - 1383.15 staff in post FTE
	All Doctors	Emergency medicine consultants	Paediatric consultants
2A) As of the 1st of December 2015, how many doctor vacancies did you have (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) for the following groups ..	As of November 2015 • 61 doctor vacancies (these included 19 consultants)
2B) As of the 1st of December 2014, how many doctor vacancies (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) did you have for the following groups ..	Not able to provide, information not stored centrally
2C) As of the 1st of December 2013 how many doctor vacancies (the equivalent of permanent full time vacancies) did you have for the following groups ..	Not able to provide, information not stored centrally
2D) As of the 1st of December 2015, how many doctor posts did you have (the equivalent of permanent full time posts/WTE budgeted establishment) did you have for the following groups ..	As of November 2015 - 481.265 staff in post FTE				