Due to the low numbers, The Trust has considered the FOIA principles of transparency and accountability; the legitimate interest in the public having access to the information and the balance between this and the rights and freedoms of the data subjects.

The Trust has taken into account the reasonable expectations of the individual: their expectations both at the time the information was collected; the nature of the information itself; the circumstances in which the information was obtained and whether the information is already in the public domain.

The Trust is using FOI exemption 40(2) personal data, “personal data” meaning data which relates to a living individual who can be identified—

(a) from that data, or

(b) from that data and other information which is in the possession of, or is likely to come into the possession of, the data controller (The Dudley Group NHS Foundation Trust).

Personal data shall be obtained only for one or more specified and lawful purposes, and shall not be further processed in any manner incompatible with that purpose or those “specified and lawful purposes” which are the public authority’s business purposes, i.e. the purposes for which it obtains and processes data
