Please note: information is being requested for the Neonatal Unit only.

How many nurses are scheduled in your intensive care unit according to the ward design? (This question aims to find out the total number of workplaces for nurses at your ward and not the number of nurses per shift.)

There are three nurseries and three cubicles, and up to 7 staff on shift to cover these areas

How many posts are currently occupied?

Total Number of nurses (Qualified + Unqualified) = 44.22 WTE

What is the percentage of intensive caregivers/nurses? (For example: "80% of all nurses have a professional training for intensive care")

100% of babies receiving intensive care will be cared for by a nurse qualified in-speciality

How many doctors work at your intensive care unit? This question aims to find out the total number of doctors that work at your ward and not the number of doctors per shift.

Based on currently occupied posts:

(FY1 / FY2 / registrar / SHO / thier1 / thier2) - 20

Consultants - 10

How many children are under the care of a single assistant doctor (assistant doctor = FY1 / FY2 / registrar / SHO / thier1 / thier2) at any one point? (I know that it depends on the level of care but I would appreciate if you could an average number.) - 5
